

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Law and New technologies: between comparison and interdisciplinarity

«Gruppo di Pisa» is launching a call of proposals for young scholars (PhD students – post doctoral researchers), whether Italian or foreign, with a scientific expertise in the fields of Public, Constitutional, European, International or Comparative Law, as well as of Philosophy, Sociology, Legal History and Political Science.

Selected speeches will be presented in the afternoon session of the Second Seminar on Comparative Law, focused on the theme “Law and New Technologies: between comparison and interdisciplinarity”.

The Seminar, organized by the Association “Gruppo di Pisa”, will take place remotely on March 26th, 2021.

The purpose of the Seminar is to reflect on the impact of “digital revolution” on the constitutional, democratic and pluralist systems, in terms of guarantee of rights and separation of powers, also in connection with the emergence of “new (private) powers”, which are strengthening in the “cyber space”.

The afternoon session will be organized into two different workshops: the first one, dedicated to the topic “New technologies and Rights”; the second one, focused on the topic “New technologies and Powers”.

Selected proposals, aimed at encouraging the comparison between the young scholars, the speakers of the Seminar and the other participants, must not exceed 10 minutes.

The working languages will be Italian, English, French or Spanish.

Proposals will have to focus on the topics of the Seminar, as specified in the document that can be consulted at the following link:

https://www.gruppodipisa.it/images/seminariDirittoComparato/Call_Seminario_di_diritto_comparato_Milano_2021.pdf

Proposals on Comparative Law, Domestic, Supranational or International Law, as well as interdisciplinary, will be considered, as long as the Candidate offers consistent comparative perspectives.

Proposals must be submitted in Italian, English, French or Spanish by February 28th, 2021 by sending an e-mail to: callunimi2020@gmail.com

The application must include:

- a) an abstract (10,000 characters spaces included in *.doc, *.docx or *.odt format), which must include the title and the indication of the workshop;
- b) a curriculum vitae et studiorum. All personal data not required by the call have to be removed.

The Scientific Committee will select successful proposals for publication, in case a scientific publication will be considered.

The editorial criteria and the deadline for papers submission will be communicated after the Seminar by e-mail only to the participants selected for the publication.

For further information, please go to:

https://www.gruppodipisa.it/images/seminariDirittoComparato/Call_Seminario_di_diritto_comparato_Milano_2021.pdf